

Anna Lucas
Adrift

Room 1
19 February - 17 April 2005

Anna Lucas is an emerging artist/filmmaker who has become increasingly recognised for her film and video installations that transform daily experience into epic drama or sensual intimacy. Adrift, a film installation, focuses on travel, displacement and migration and combines film projections, still images and sound to form cinematic interludes that are inflected with reverie and tenderness, disquiet and departure.

Images of movement and passage form a thread throughout the installation: ports, ferries and embarkation are soundtracked by Lucas' field recordings of public gatherings, overheard music, birds, wind, helicopters and thunder.

Commissioned by Picture This and Chisenhale Gallery

Image: Anna Lucas Adrift, 2004