

Lord Mayor's Reception Room

The Lord Mayor's Reception Room. This elegant room forms part of the civic suite and is used by the Lord Mayor to host visiting dignitaries. There is a minstrel's gallery at one end of the room and it is the site of the eighteenth British Empire panel painted by Frank Brangwyn. The Lord Mayor's Reception Room is a popular venue for civil ceremonies and you can see the layout of the room for a ceremony in the YouTube film clip below.

Capacity: 30 - 130

Cost £130 per session

Equipment (available on request): PA system, Digital projector, projection screen

Catering

JR Catering are the perfect choice of caterers for your event. They have a highly skilled and experienced team, along with a superb range of menus to suit every budget. They have also catered at a huge array of venues, ranging from castles and stately homes through to marquees

The history of the Brangwyn and Guildhall
The Guildhall has played a central role in the lives of the inhabitants of Swansea for the last fifty years.

The building has proved to be functional as well as being architecturally splendid. Its innovative design and features were widely copied in other municipal buildings during the two decades following its completion.

The Brangwyn Hall Panels

Sir Frank Brangwyn, R.A. (1867 - 1956) is celebrated as one of Britain's most prolific and versatile artists. His work is internationally acclaimed and the huge British Empire Panels in Swansea are amongst the most important examples of his decorative work on a large scale. The Brangwyn Hall at the Guildhall, Swansea is renowned as a major concert hall, conference and reception centre, servicing the Principality and beyond, is enhanced by these unique magnificent panels.

