

Brangwyn Hall

The Brangwyn Hall is a fabulous venue for dinners, weddings, exhibitions, concerts, dances and conferences.

It is a beautiful venue, with decorated ceilings, wood panelling and art deco touches. It is decorated with the huge British Empire Panels by the artist Frank Brangwyn, who lent his name to the hall. The Brangwyn Hall can accommodate 1070 theatre style and 500 seated for a formal dinner event. In addition to a large raised stage.

Capacity: up to 1070

Cost POA

Equipment (available on request): PA system, Infrared loop system, Projection screen (front/rear), conference set, Digital projector.

Catering

JR Catering are the perfect choice of caterers for your event. They have a highly skilled and experienced team, along with a superb range of menus to suit every budget. They have also catered at a huge array of venues, ranging from castles and stately homes through to marquees and even a barn or two!

The history of the Brangwyn and Guildhall

The Guildhall has played a central role in the lives of the inhabitants of Swansea for the last fifty years.

The building has proved to be functional as well as being architecturally splendid. Its innovative design and features were widely copied in other municipal buildings during the two decades following its completion.

The Brangwyn Hall Panels

Sir Frank Brangwyn, R.A. (1867 - 1956) is celebrated as one of Britain's most prolific and versatile artists. His work is internationally acclaimed and the huge British Empire Panels in Swansea are amongst the most important examples of his decorative work on a large scale. The Brangwyn Hall at the Guildhall, Swansea is renowned as a major concert hall, conference and reception centre, servicing the Principality and beyond, is enhanced by these unique magnificent panels.

