The history of the Brangwyn and Guildhall

The Guildhall has played a central role in the lives of the inhabitants of Swansea for the last fifty years.

The building has proved to be functional as well as being architecturally splendid. Its innovative design and features were widely copied in other municipal buildings during the two decades following its completion.

The Brangwyn Hall Panels

Sir Frank Brangwyn, R.A. (1867 - 1956) is celebrated as one of Britain's most prolific and versatile artists. His work is internationally acclaimed and the huge British Empire Panels in Swansea are amongst the most important examples of his decorative work on a large scale. The Brangwyn Hall at the Guildhall, Swansea is renowned as a major concert hall, conference and reception centre, servicing the Principality and beyond, is enhanced by these unique magnificent panels.
