The Art Party

From 5pm, Big Screen, Castle Square, Swansea
Thursday 21 August

The Art Party feature film captures the spirit of the Scarborough conference held in November 2013, championing the importance of art and its place in education and modern politics.

As part of a series of nationwide art parties, Glynn Vivian Offsite presents The Art Party! feature film. Part documentary, part road movie and part political fantasy, The Art Party! feature film captures the spirit of the Scarborough conference held in November 2013, championing the importance of art and its place in education and modern politics.

A kaleidoscopic mix of performance, artist interviews and imagined scenes, The Art Party! is the latest in a line of collaborations between director Tim Newton and Bob and Roberta Smith.

For the film screening, Black Kettle Collective will be hosting an event in Castle Square for everyone. Come along and P-A-R-T-Y!

The Art Party is a Tim Newton and Bob and Roberta Smith production, in association with Crescent Arts, ACE Grants for the Arts, The Cass Faculty of Art, Architecture & Design and distributed by Cornerhouse Artist Film.
